

25 Fall Activities for Families

- Get outdoors! Go for a hike or bike ride, spend some time at the park throwing a Frisbee. Take a walk around your neighborhood.
- Look up state or national parks nearby and plan a family picnic.
- Rake the leaves in your yard into a pile and let the kids jump in them.
- Make leaf rubbings in fall colors.
- Check local museums- some have a free day each month.
- Check out fall storybooks from the library, or if you have older kids, read Anne of Green Gables. There is a free version on Kindle.
- Make pumpkin bread and apple cider.
- Go apple picking.
- Camp out in your backyard.
- Visit a pumpkin patch.
- Buy fall colored nail polish and paint your toes a fun color.
- Thrift shop for a fun fall accessory like a scarf or hat.
- Go on a Fall Scavenger Hunt!
- Make Fall Slime.
- Use sidewalk chalk to draw a foursquare in your driveway.
- Make a living room fort.
- Drink hot chocolate on your back porch.
- Take a nature walk and let your kids take a picture of every kind of insect they can find.
- Start a "thankful wall" in your home and fill it with post it notes of what your family is thankful for.
- Roast marshmallows.
- Play football in your backyard.
- Find a local farmers market to get your produce.
- Bake cookies, or a pie.
- Go on a hayride.
- Watch the sunset.